

After the Last Day of Current Year

12/04/2025 8:29 am EST

The items included in this section should be completed after the last instructional day of the current year.

All items that are applicable must be completed prior to the future year becoming the active year. The active year will be updated on June 30th.

Items included in the processes below are subject to change as NCDPI determines the best practices for End of Year.
